

Message from His Worship Mayor Don Iveson

On behalf of City Council and the people of Edmonton, Alberta's Capital City, I extend warm greetings to the readers of the 10th annual Lebanese Directory.

Edmonton's cultural landscape is shaped by the many ethnic communities who contribute their skills and heritage to our city. For the past 10 years, the Lebanese Directory has been a leading resource guide for communities across Alberta. As a tool that helps promote small- and medium-sized businesses, Leb411 adds to the diversity and resiliency of our economy. Not only does it offer valuable information about Lebanese culture and services – from events and food to health, immigration and real estate – but it also unites our Lebanese communities and business leaders.

I thank everyone involved with this project. By continuing to promote Lebanese culture and entrepreneurship in our city, you are enhancing Edmonton's strong multicultural spirit and diverse economy.

Yours truly,
